Part 3: Upload two work samples

Applicants should submit two work samples that illustrate the quality of work that CBA staff and fellows can expect to see during the residency. Work samples can include photo, audio/video, and/or written documents. If there is a password associated with your work sample, please leave that information in the notes.

Documents may be up to 20 pages, and videos may be up to 10 minutes. Reviewers are instructed to only read or view materials according to these parameters.

We do not accept compilations or sizzle reels. Please submit whole sections of work.

Accepted formats: pdf, doc, docx, ppt, pptx, avi, mp4, mov, wav, mp3, png, jpg, jpeg, jpe

Part 4: Upload a CV or bio

Please upload either a curriculum vitae (CV) or a bio. Accepted formats: pdf, doc, docx

Part 5: Request two recommendations

Ideal referees will address the applicant's career and contributions to their field, their scholarly or artistic promise, and their ability to contribute to CBA and NYU's multidisciplinary communities. Referees may not be collaborators on the fellow's project.

CBA uses an application platform supported by Survey Monkey. Please inform your recommenders that the email will come from a noreply@surveymonkey email address.

You will not be allowed to submit your application until both recommenders have submitted recommendation forms on your behalf.
